Please see the attached Executive Coaching Process document for the general process.

1. Expectations: Specific expectations are that the coaching will help Xxxx develop enhanced leadership skills to improve his performance, and prepare for increased levels of responsibility. In addition, it is expected that Xxxx will improve his people development skills.
2. Confidentiality: The coach/client relationship is confidential, except in the case of potential harm to himself or others. I will provide general feedback to management, but the primary feedback will come from Xxxx to his manager. I encourage my clients to view their manager as a partner in their self-development, to report progress, and ask for needed support.
3. Measurement of Results: Before and after 360 degree feedback and/or employee evaluation reports can provide evidence of change, as well as observations by management and others. After an initial period of 3 – 6 months any initial performance assessments are usually repeated to evaluate progress.
4. Term of Contract: Strategic Coaching Network (SCN) coaching contracts are for 12 months, with a 3 month checkpoint to ensure that the client is making suitable progress. Achieving sustainable behavioral change takes time, and the coaching provides for continued support while the new behaviors are applied.
5. Time and Place of Service: The initial session, which includes feedback from intake assessments, is delivered in person (usually off-site) in a half-day session. Afterward, there are three 1 hour calls a month on the telephone (1 hour per week for the first three weeks of the month). In addition, I provide unlimited e-mail access and limited telephone access between calls.
6. Fees and Payment Terms: As we discussed, the fees will be $xxx/month, with an additional $xxx for the first month intake and assessment.
